Secretary (vacant)

8. Membership money

Notice has been put out in the bar asking for suggestions on what members wish to spend the £1500. Decisions made at AGM.

Current list of options include new tables/chairs. Ben gave examples/costs - £150 per table. Bonket seating will likely be reinstalled.

11. A.O.B

D'eath wedding – Mary and Kerry have met with bride and groom. Horsebox unlikely to go ahead. Tequila/Jager are required for the wedding. Groom prepared to buy any left overs from us.

We have four weddings so far for the year.

Friday Fun Nights – launch 12th January.

Mary and Clare S running Easter Eggstravaganza on 2nd April 2018. Ben reminded all that one person needs to take charge of all events and see them through.

Network Rail are holding a drop in session on 19th January.

Hug a Mug continues to do well. Sue Sturman is now employed for 16hrs pwk. Additional bar keys are being cut for her/Mary and one spare. There is a requirement for a till system for the cafe with the potential to link to the bar tills, this would potentially incorporate new card machines too – ongoing.

Ben reminded all about the alarm. Front entrance to be used at all times and always check that the alarm is disarmed before entering the building properly. Reminder to be given to all staff.

Ben suggested that the hall is lacking due to Paul's involvement being reduced and suggested that there is a need for a hall steward role to oversee the bar/work with the hall manager – ongoing.

Janet to provide update to the Parish Council magazine.

Ben advised that as he is no longer on the Parish Council that he felt it inappropriate to hold a 'thank you' party. Audio Jack are still booked for 24th Feb so we will continue with their booking. Ben to advise interested parties.

Kerry and Ben gave a reminder to all about asking for ID, particularly when there are parties being held (18th birthday party held on 13th Jan)

12. Meeting closes at 8.15pm
